THE ALLOTMENT

by GILLIAN PLOWMAN

BCP are pleased to announce auditions for their 2017 Festival Play - Gillian Plowman's The Allotment - Thursday 9th February 2017 at The Mill Arts Centre, Banbury, 8pm.

This play with a twist, light comic touches and poignant undertones is BCP's entry into the 2017 Lighthorne One-Act Festival (7-10 June). The play will also be performed at BCP's Season Preview evening in September 2017.

Five women work together on their shared allotment but all is not as it seems amongst the peas and beans. How are the lives of these women linked? What secret is Daisy hiding? Will Lorna pull off one final performance?

Roles for women aged between 30 and 70 as follows:

- Marcie - convicted of dangerous driving
- Norah - serial shoplifter
- Belle - a P.A
- Lorna - an actress and singer
- Daisy - a probation officer

There will be a read through of the play on Tuesday 7th February 2017, 7.30pm at The Mill Arts Centre – all welcome!
