FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Will you be dining out this summer?

Banbury Cross Players invite you to a different type of “Feast” this July when they present a smorgasbord of performance to satisfy your theatrical appetite.

In a change from the single full length play, BCP’s July production at The Mill Arts Centre, Banbury, consists of three one act plays.

Entrée

David Tristram’s “Peas” sees Daisy and Gerry as the first couple trying out a new online dating agency – just how successful has the computer been at matching their interests?

Main

In David Tristram’s “The Extraordinary Revelations of Orca the Goldfish”, Henry and Alice overcome the mundane in their marriage by drifting off into fantasy – which they happily and hysterically share with the audience.

Dessert

Harold Pinter’s “The Dumb Waiter” is a sharp, claustrophobic, urban thriller; a humorous and provocative story of two hit men as they wait in a basement for their next assignment.

Do come and gorge yourself on this theatrical Feast – running from 13-16 July 2016, curtain up 7.45pm.

Tickets available now from The Mill Arts Centre Box Office on 01295 279002 or www.themillartscentre.co.uk/cms/event/95952.
