FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Three for the Price of One AND 15% off!

With two plays from the pen of the UK's most popular comedy playwright, David Tristram, and a third from Nobel prize-winning Harold Pinter, Banbury Cross Players' "A Theatrical Feast" promises an evening of thrills and spills, love and marriage, and thought-provoking drama.

The series of two-hander plays first sees Daisy and Gerry trying out a new dating agency – with mixed results in "Peas". Alice and Henry share their deepest fantasies with you in the second – "The Extraordinary Revelations of Orca the Goldfish". And in the third, "The Dumb Waiter", a sinister pair of hitmen wait patiently in a basement for their next assignment.

As well as the opportunity to see three different plays in one evening, "A Theatrical Feast" is included in The Mill Arts Centre's July Summer Saver Promotion. Book for two events in one transaction and save 15% on your ticket price. Everyone loves a bargain so what's not to like about Banbury Cross Players' latest outing?

Come along and let us entertain you!

"A Theatrical Feast" opens at The Mill Arts Centre, Spiceball Park Rd, Banbury, on 13 July 2016 and runs until 16 July 2016. Curtain up is 7.45pm.

Tickets are available from The Mill Box Office on 01295 279002 or online at www.themillartscentre.co.uk/cms/event/95952.
