SECRETS and LIES

It may be cold outside but there's a warm welcome for you from Banbury Cross Players at The Mill Arts Centre, Banbury, next week with their production of the 1950s Spy Thriller, "Pack of Lies".

Hugh Whitmore's play follows the story of the middle class, suburban Jackson family, coerced by MI5 into allowing their home to be used for surveillance on Russian spies, Helen and Peter Kroger. The Krogers purport to be Canadian antique book dealers – and just happen to be the Jackson's close family friends.

Whilst teenage daughter, Julie, takes the intrusion in her stride, mother, Barbara, struggles to maintain the necessary deception during the daily neighbourly visits from Helen. Father Bob knows what his country needs him to do but, in the end, for the Jacksons, deception can be a killer..

The production opens on 4 February 2015, 7.45pm and runs until 7 February 2015.

Tickets are available from The Mill Box Office on 01295 279002 or www.themillartscentre.co.uk.
