Welcome

Firstly, I am delighted to welcome you to Banbury Cross Players' performance of Frank Vickery's A Kiss on the Bottom, and sincerely hope your visit is an enjoyable one!

There is an enormous amount of energy and enthusiasm put into a production, not just from the performers and backstage people, but by everyone working to make the show a success. front of house, marketing, lighting, sound - all working to deliver a first class production for you, our valued audience member.

We do appreciate your continuing support of our shows, as we, like all similar organisations, are feeling the 'pinch' in the current financial climate. It is only by your patronage that we are able to go on providing four top class shows a year.

Please visit our website - www.banburycrossplayers.co.uk - which provides details of our latest (and future) productions. There you'll also find details of our Gold Card membership which offers tickets to shows at discounted prices.

Finally, I hope we get the opportunity to welcome you back to visit Banbury Cross Players in the not too distant future. We do have some great entertainment in store for you. Our next production is Alan Ayckbourn's comedy drama, RolePlay, which will be performed here at The Mill from the 29th April to 2nd May 2009

Thank you,

Terry Gallager
